THE CHRISTMAS VESPER SERVICE

The Christmas Vesper Service will be held in the Chapel on Tuesday, December 18th, at 4:00 p.m. The service will consist of meditation and carols, and special music by the Madrigal Singers under the direction of Mrs. Eugenia C. Saville. This service is under the sponsorship of the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A.

FACULTY TRAFFIC COURT

The Faculty Traffic Court will hear appeals on Thursday, January 3, in the Law School Court Room at 4:00 p.m.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB FOLK DANCING GROUP

The International Club will sponsor an evening of folk dancing from 8:00 until 11:00 p.m. at the Ark on East Campus on Friday, January 4th. The dances are drawn from many lands and instruction is given in all of them. No previous experience in folk dancing is necessary, and the University Community is cordially invited to participate in the dancing.

NOTICES FOR THE UNIVERSITY CALENDAR

The next issue of the University Calendar will be published for the week of January 6-12, 1957. The deadline for material to be submitted for publication in this issue will be Thursday, January 3, at 1:00 p.m., Room 202-A, Flowers Building, East Campus.

ANSHEL BRUSILOW, VIOLINIST

The Department of Aesthetics, Art, and Music and the Student Union are pleased to announce the co-sponsorship of a pair of concerts featuring Anshel Brusilow, Assistant Concertmaster of the Cleveland Symphony. He will perform the Tchaikovsky Violin Concerto with the Duke Symphony Orchestra in Page Auditorium on Thursday, January 10 at 8:15 p.m. Admission will be $1.00.

On January 11th the artist will present a solo recital assisted by Loren Withers at the piano. This concert will also be heard in Page Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. and there will be no admission charged.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

Since a number of foreign students at Duke must spend all of their Christmas Holiday on Campus, arrangements are presently being made for their Christmas day entertainment in Durham homes. This is a unique opportunity for us to extend the Christmas spirit beyond our immediate homes and to enable these students to participate in American Christmas traditions.

In the event that you are interested in inviting two students for this day or any other day during the Holiday, please call W. J. Griffith at 9011, Ext. 2584 to make the necessary arrangements.

JAMES B. DUKE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

James B. Duke Fellowships with stipends of $2100 will be awarded by the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences for the academic year 1957-1958. Appointments are open to students with the bachelor's degree and to applicants with advanced standing. Renewal of appointments may be made for each of three years for students with the bachelor's degree and for a lesser period for students with advanced standing. Appointments, which will be awarded on a competitive basis, will be announced on April 1, 1957. The Fellowship program is made possible by a gift from the Duke Endowment establishing the James B. Duke One Hundredth Anniversary Fund as announced by President Edens at Founders' Day, December 11, 1956.

James B. Duke Fellows will carry a full program of studies and research and are required to pay full tuition and general fees. For the academic year 1957-1958 tuition and general fees are $450 and $120 respectively.

Requests for application forms and information should be directed to Dean of the Graduate School, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina. Applications, transcripts, letters of recommendation and all related material must be received on or before March 1, 1957. If practicable, James B. Duke Fellowship applicants should furnish records on the Graduate Record Examination.

A special exhibit of Contemporary American glass, sponsored by the Student Union and circulated by the traveling Exhibition Service of the Smithsonian Institution, is now on display in the Union Lounge on West Campus and is open daily to visitors without charge.

Organized by the Corning Museum of Glass, this exhibition of household and decorative glass was selected on the basis of quality and originality and shows steps in the evolution of a distinctly American style. The objects come from small craft houses as well as from great companies and display the work done by such well known craftsmen as Maurice Heaton, Michael Higgins, Eileen Bradford, and Earl McCutcheon.

"BEST BOOKS" EXHIBITS IN WOMAN'S COLLEGE LIBRARY

The Woman's College Library now has on display two collections of "best books" of the year 1956: a traveling exhibit of the "50 Books of the Year," chosen by the American Institute of Graphic Arts as outstanding examples of good book design, typography, and craftsmanship; and an exhibit from the Library's own collection of "Notable Books of 1956," selected by the American Library Association for excellence of literary form and content and for genuine interest and appeal to the general reader.

MADRIGAL SINGERS PLAN SPRING ACTIVITIES

The Duke Madrigal Singers have resumed rehearsals for the Spring semester, and are preparing for several concerts to be given during the spring months. The twenty-five-voice mixed chorus will perform for several groups during this time. On March 6th, they will present a program of madrigals for the combined library staffs of Duke University and the University of North Carolina in the Ball Room of the Union Building on West Campus.

Appearing on the program of the Southeastern Renaissance Society meetings to be held at Duke University, the Madrigal Singers will present a program of English and Italian music of the Renaissance on Friday evening, April 12th.

The following evening, April 13th, the group will appear in Woman's College Auditorium in a program for the Mother-Daughter Week-end.

The annual Spring Concert of the Duke Madrigal Singers will be presented on Monday, April 22nd, in the Music Room in East Duke Building at 8:15 p.m.

The Duke Madrigal Singers extend an invitation to any student, graduate student, or faculty member desiring to participate in the activities of the group. Auditions can be arranged by telephoning the director, Mrs. Eugenia Saville, at extension 2533.

Repertoire now being studied includes: madrigals by John Wilbye and Orlando Gibbons; Italian madrigals of Gesualdo, Monteverde and Andrea Gabrieli; Bach Cantata No. 150: Nach dir, Herr, verlangst mich; and contemporary pieces by Peter Mennin, based on old Chinese texts. The Bach cantata will be accompanied by strings, bassoon, and keyboard.

REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO ABSENCES FROM CLASSES

An undergraduate student who incurs more than three absences in a course (whether excused or unexcused) is ordinarily debarred from the course. Should he be permitted to remain in the course full credit will not be allowed. The amount of reduced credit will be determined by the Director of the Summer Session. Days missed through late registration are counted as absences, and three tardies in a given course are counted as one absence.

An undergraduate degree candidate in Duke University who incurs more than three absences in a course must confer immediately with the Dean of his or her college, who in turn will recommend to the Director of the Summer Session whether the student may continue in the course. A special or unclassified student who incurs more than three absences in a course must confer immediately with the Director of the Summer Session who will determine whether the student may continue in the course.

WEEKLY CALENDAR INFORMATION

This is the first issue of the Weekly Calendar of Duke University for the academic year 1957-1958. Hereafter, the Calendar will appear every Saturday morning.

Members of the faculty and staff are requested to have notices for publication in the Calendar in Room 202-A Flowers Building, West Campus, not later than 1:00 p.m. on Thursday. This is absolutely necessary in order that the Calendar may be handled by the printers and be ready for distribution early Saturday morning.

To circumvent possible errors it is requested that notices be submitted in typewritten form.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FOR ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY AND STAFF

Beginning this week and continning through the academic year, Room 204 in the Men's Uuion Bnilding is reserved for your use at luncheon, Monday through Friday. The Oak Room menu will be served and checks will be paid at the Oak Room cashier's station. Additional space has been set aside in the ballroom for gronps which wish to sit together.

Please uote that this room is now on the Oak Room-Faculty Lounge side of the ballroom and is reached by that stairway.

Since there is a shortage of space in which to serve nniversity groups which require private dining facilities, it will be necessary from time to time to use this room for that purpose. We sincerely hope that this will be an infreqnent inconvenience. On such occasions, you are welcome to use one of the five diuing halls in the Men's Union.

Theodore W. Minah, Director
Duke University Dining Halls

SOUTHERN REGIONAL FELLOWSHIPS

The Sonthern Regional Fellowships Fund has announced its program of awards for 1958-59. The program is designed to provide means for advanced stndy

WOMAN'S COLLEGE LIBRARY EXHIBITS

George Cruikshank
1792-1878

The name Cruikshank: Isaac, the father, and George and Robert, the sons, has long been famous among the leading caricaturists of the world. George Cruikshank is perhaps the best known of the three. Now on display in the Woman's College Library are books illustrating some of the most famous of his caricatures. Among them are George Cruikshank's Fairy Library, 1853-1854, The Three Cruikshanks, illustrated by Isaac, George, and Robert Cruikshank, compiled by Frederick Marchmont, the Steel Engravings, by George Cruikshank, to illustrate the Adventures of Oliver Twist, by Charles Dickens, and the Ingoldsby Legends.

Kate Greenaway
1846-1901

The illustrations of Kate Greenaway for Under the Window, published in 1878, influenced the dress of children, because parents began to clothe their children in the quaint costumes of the 1880's, which Kate Greenaway had used to illustrate the above work. This book, along with Kate Greenaway's Almanack for 1887, 1889, 1891, Mother Goose, and Marigold Garden, and other titles, all illustrated by Kate Greenaway, are on display in the Woman's College Library.

Both of the above will remain on display for the rest of the month.
